I understand that, occasionally during the quilting process, merchandise may be damaged by the computer driven sewing machine. If you supply the merchandise and there is a problem, we do not replace your item. Your damaged piece will be returned to you. Problems do not arise often, but the customer must be aware and agree to the possibility.

The customer's merchandise is accepted on the strict understanding that Inthreadible Quilting cannot accept any liability whatsoever, for any damage to customer supplied merchandise during the process of quilting. All merchandise is left entirely at the customer's own risk.

If I put my quilt in a show, I agree to give Donna Reznik of Inthreadible Quilting credit for the quilting.
